Song of Community # 347 Gather the Spirit

Gather the spirit, harvest the power.
Our separate fires will kindle one flame.
Witness the mystery of this hour.
Our trials in this light appear all the same.

Refrain:

*Gather in peace, gather in thanks.
Gather in sympathy now and then.
Gather in hope, compassion and strength.
Gather to celebrate once again.*

Gather the spirit of heart and mind.
Seeds for the sowing are laid in store.
Nurtured in love and conscience refined,
with body and spirit united once more. Refrain

Gather the spirit growing in all,
Drawn by the moon and fed by the sun.
Winter to spring, and summer to fall,
the chorus of life resounding as one. Refrain

Song of Praise

Praise God, the Love we all may share;
Praise God, the Beauty everywhere;
Praise God, the Hope of Good to be;
Praise God, the Truth that makes us free.

Our Covenant (written in 1842)

Being desirous of promoting practical goodness in the world,
And of aiding each other in our moral and religious improvement,
We have associated ourselves together -
Not as agreeing in opinion,
Not as having attained universal truth in belief
Or perfection in character -
But as seekers after truth and goodness.

Doxology

From all that dwell below the skies
Let faith and hope with love arise;
Let beauty, truth, and good be sung
Through every land by every tongue.

Education for Children and Youth

Offering

Hymn # 34 Though I May Speak with Bravest Fire

Though I may speak with bravest fire,
And have the gift to all inspire,
And have not love, my words are vain,
As sounding brass and hopeless gain.

Though I may give all I possess,
And striving so my love profess,
But not be given by love within,
The profit soon turns strangely thin.

Come, Spirit, come, our hearts control,
Our spirits long to be made whole.
Let inward love guide every deed;
By this we worship and are freed.

Hymn #108 My Life Flows On in Endless Song

My life flows on in Endless Song above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing.
It sounds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing!

What though the tempest 'round me roars, I know the truth it liveth.

What though the darkness 'round me close, songs in the night it giveth.

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.

Since love prevails in heav'n and earth, how can I keep from singing!

When tyrants tremble as they hear the bells of freedom ringing, when friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing!

To prison cell and dungeon vile our thoughts to them are winging, when friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from singing!

Sending Our Light into the World

Announcements

The Board of Directors has extended our current stay-at-home practice including a continuation of virtual services, group meetings and other functions until at least Friday, July 31st. Ongoing assessments are being monitored and further updates will be posted at uusg.org as relevant.

Special Board Budget Meeting Thursday, May 28 at 7pm. The Board of Directors will meet via Zoom to discuss the 2020-2021 fiscal year budget. Members and friends are welcome to attend. Please email office@uusg.org for the Zoom link.

Fraud, Phishing, and Scams Some members recently received a text message from “Pastor Jennifer.” Do not reply. The message did not come from Rev. Jennifer. The phone number was not hers, either. These texts are another example of phishing, where a company tries to “hook” responses by imitating a known person or group. Responses to these messages will be followed by requests for money, often under the guise of asking for help. No requests for money will come from the ministers in this way. Again, do not reply.

And a reminder to carefully review emails before clicking on links or downloading attachments. When in doubt, delete and mark as spam. The Federal Trade Commission has a helpful article here on how to recognize and avoid phishing scams. Unfortunately, there are many scams running at this time while we are staying at home. If you receive suspicious emails or messages that may appear to come from the ministers or the church, please contact Revs. Jennifer or Patrick and the office.

Beyond Our Walls In the months of March and April, members and friends donated $2155 in support of the Northern Illinois Food Bank. In this time of crisis, our donation had an immediate impact within this community. With the spending power they employ, the NIFB can buy $16,000 worth of food from their suppliers.

Julie Yurko, CEO of the Food Bank, provided this information. Our efforts contributed to the success of their mission in April. The NIFB is the BOW recipient for May, please continue to be as generous as you are able. At this time of need, every dollar counts. Visit uusg.org/donate for online giving information.

Your contributions are very much appreciated. If you have any questions for this volunteer effort, please contact one of the following Social Justice Team members. Larry Escalona, escalaz39@gmail.com, Jean Pierce, jeanpierce@aol.com.

Corona Virus Mask Making Opportunity The Social Justice Team is joining efforts with the "We Can Lead Change" group that is assembling and distributing no-sew masks. They have a well-organized process and are currently delivering thousands of masks but need more "Assembly Workers" to build the volume. These masks are being delivered to many shelters, nursing homes, and first responders. If you would like to get into the fun, please see this video on how to assemble masks. You can keep up to 5 masks for the use of you and your family. They are surprisingly comfortable, and can be washed up to three times in a mesh bag...air dry. Assembly volunteers pick up a mask kit of materials for 25 and then return the finished set at Christine's Schirtzinger's porch at 3448 Dover Hill Ct, St Charles, anytime between 9am and 9pm. UUSG Members Bill Koehl and Bill Scown would like to keep track of our volunteer effort. To get started please give Bill Scown a call at 630-360-0905 or email wncscown@comcast.net.

The Communications Team is looking to recruit, and you're hired (non-monetarily)! We are a recently resurrected volunteer team focused on communications, marketing, and welcoming people beyond our walls (BOW) to check UUSG out. Youth and members of underrepresented populations are especially encouraged to join. We welcome ALL members of all skill, commitment, and curiosity levels. Please contact the Communications Team Leader, Caroline Amelse, at communications@uusg.org for more information.
